Website and funding

The website is a guide to hate crime developed by the University of Sydney in partnership with the Australian Hate Crime Network. It provides information through three pillars - awareness, support and action. This includes definitions, community support organisations, and a guide to reporting agencies and processes. This site has been made possible through grants from the City of Sydney and the University of Sydney Law School.

Changes to URLs

We are sometimes required to move, delete or archive content or pages on our website. If this happens you can search our website for the revised content or page via the primary or footer navigation menus.

Hate crime website logo lockups

We have three logos which you're welcome to use. When using these logos within website content, please include the alt tag and link back directly to our website: hatecrime.com.au.

Alt tag: Hate crime website with a link through to our site:
